Dear James Bartolomei:

Through your professional legal training with AAJ Education, you have attained recognition as an "Advocate" under the National College of Advocacy's Achievement Recognition Program. Congratulations. Enclosed is a certificate reflecting this accomplishment and a transcript of your recorded NCA credits. Please verify that your transcript is complete and notify us of any discrepancies.

This certificate represents your participation in at least 30 hours of AAJ Education continuing legal education programs since August 1, 1990. It signifies your commitment to effective representation of your clients through professional development. The status of Advocate is an acknowledged designation within AAJ, and it will appear next to your AAJ directory listing. Please refer to pertinent state and local bar rules of professional conduct if you intend to use it as part of your legal credentials. Many jurisdictions have strict rules governing the use of professional designations.

You may earn the status of "Fellow" of the NCA upon achieving 200 credits. AAJ members who attend AAJ Education programs are also eligible to earn recognition as a "Diplomate of Trial Advocacy" by accumulating 400 credits and successfully completing the Ultimate Trial Advocacy Course: The Art of Persuasion.

Warm congratulations on this achievement. AAJ Education appreciates your support. We hope to see you at future educational programs.

Sincerely yours,

Anjali Jessoramsing
